"What Wellman Says About These Trials Goes," Says Commissioner Murray.

ELEVENTH PRECINCT CASES.

Witnesses from That District Being Examined by Counsel for the Prosecution.

There seems to be a very distinct misunderstanding between the Police Comnissioners as to the next step in the police trials, forced on the Board by the revelations before the Lexow Committee. President Martin told "The Evening World" reporter yesterday that no cap tain would be tried until after the five ed sergeants of the Fourteenth Precinct, Capt. Doherty's old command had been tried, and that they would be placed on trial next Wednesday To back up this statement all the re-charges and specifications against these But Mr. Wellman as positively said that a captain would be put on trial and not the sergeants, intimating that he had bigger fish to fry than subor-parlance, "hot under the collar" this morning, when a reporter approached him and asked if it was settled that the accused Sergeants would be the next

"Not by any means," said he. "My understanding is that the matter of electing who shall be next piaced on trial rests entirely with Assistant District-Attorney Wellman. He might decide to place any of the accused Captains on trial, and the Board could not very well do otherwise than submit to his wishes."

"But," suggested the reporter, "Pres-ident Martin announced yesterday that the Sergeants would be called for trial m Wednesday."

on Wednesday."
"That may be so, and it undoubtedly is so," replied the Commissioner, "but nevertheless, if Mr. Wellman concludes to pick out some Captain, I understand he has authority to do so. I think there is considerable misapprehension concerning the matter. I do not understand that President Martin's announcement makes it obligatory on Mr. Wellman to try the sergeants next. I think if it is M. Wellman's desire, and I understand that it is, to dispense and it understand that it is, to dispense and it understand that it is, to dispense and it is to dispense and it understand that it is, to dispense and it is t pose of the captains' cases first, that no member of this Board will interpose an objection."

member of this Board will interpose an objection.

Mr. Osborne, assistant to Mr. Wellman, was "astonished that Fresident Martin should have said that no Captain will be called for trial Wednesday next."

In substantiation of Mr. Osborne's astonishment it may be mentioned that he has been engaged for the last two days, including to-day, in the examination of witnesses in the Eleventh Precinct cases against Inspector McLaughlin, at one time Captain in that precinct; Capt. Adam A. Cross, now in the Fourteenth Precinct, and Capt. Devery.

There is another point, Mr. Wellman said significantly that he was after "bigger game." Inspector McLaughlin is a special protege of Supt. Byrnes. The relations between the "greatest policeman that ever lived" and the Commissioners, i. e., President Jimmy Martin, are known to be very much strained, and it is quite possible that the "bigger game" to be hunted next is the Superintendent's stanch friend, Inspector Billy McLaughlin.

Capt. Adam Cross is a protege of Gov. cLaughlin. Capt. Adam Cross is a protege of Gov. lower, yet he, too, is included in the Capt. Adam Cross is a protege of Gov. Flower, yet he, too, is included in the accusations of the dive-keepers of the Eldridge street bailiwick.

A man close to Mr. Wellman assured an "Evening World" reporter that McLanghiln would not be tried. That would leave only Adam Cross, of the Eldridge street police, for Devery, it is conceded, is too ill.

Another thing that seems to indicate that the Eldridge street cases are not in innocuous desuetude is the anxiety of the prosecutors about the witnesses whose testimony is expected to be of vital importance in the cases against Devery, McLaughiln and Cross. Messrs, Wellman and Osborne affect to be indifferent, but "The Evening World" is in possession of positive proof that special officers have been engaged for several days in locating Charles Prienonce of the dive at 2 Hayard street, and Rhoda Sanford, another divekeeper, who claims she paid 500 initiation fee and 500 a month bribery to the rolling Captain.

Whatever may be in store for next week, the five Fourteenth Precinct sergeants against whom charges of brihery and of receiving ball from a well-known disorderly-house keeper were filed yesterday, have been notified to appear Wednesday morning before the Police Commissioners for trial. Sergis. Jordan, Clark, Lieber and Parkerson have retained Friend & House, and Srigt, Fellx McKenna, the "bald headed" has engaged Samuel W. Adams to defend him.

(Special to The Evening World.) NEWARK, N. J., Aug. 10.-The Italian quarter in Drift street was thrown into state of great excitement last night by a shooting affray, which may turn out to be a murder. Mary Russo, fifteen years old, who lives with her husband at 18 Drift street shot and severely wounded Pasqualo Juliano, a tailor's apprentice, eightech years old.

Juliano had requested Mrs. Russo allow him to use her sewing-machine the afternoon, when the neighbors a heavy fall. Pushing into the room they found Juliano lying unconscious on the floor, and Mrs. Russo standing over him flourishing a smoking revolver.

The young tailor is very popular in the colony, and had it not been for the arrival of the police it is probable that the girl would have been lynched. The excited Italians gathered about her and made ugly threats and menacing gestures.

When taken to the station-house, she declared that Juliano wanted her to poison her husband with the contents of a vial he gave her, and marry him. She scorned his proposition, she says, and Juliaro thereupon attempted to assault her.
